Ng Man Chu

JUL 26, 1945 - AUG 3, 2019

Ng Man Chu, born 7/26/1945 in Toishan, China immigrated to the US with his wife, May Lee Chu in the 1980's. There he started a new life in America raising up 4 beautiful children: Peter, Judy, Annie and Tina. He was a hard working, friendly and reliable person: Always willing to lend a helping hand to family and friends. Ng Man is a baker, artist, musician and calligrapher and loving father. As a baker, he made sure his chinese/western pastries are always fresh and full stocked. He made the best sponge cakes. Upon retirement, he adopted the stage name: Chu Man and turned to his hobby: The Erhu. Along the way, he has made many friends and became an essential part of the SF chinese music community. It is time to say farewell to our beloved Ng Man and may we bless him on the way to heaven.
