I sure loved Uncle Dick! Visiting their home was magical as a child. Uncle Dick's smile, and kind gentle ways added so much to our family Sunday visits! He and Auntie Carol were so wonderful. Much love to you all! Kristin Linebarger Richey

Fond childhood memories of Sunday & Holiday dinners at "Uncle Dick" and "Auntie Carol's" . Always took an interest in what I was up to, always happy, positive... and had the cool classic button up sweaters. A true classic and gentleman.

To the Neher Family, I deeply mourn the passing of my dear kind brother-in-law, Dick. My husband Bob and I were privileged to raise our family in San Jose and spend most of the holidays and birthdays with Carol and Dick and their family. Dick was always a true gentleman and made an effort to visit with each of us and show interest in our lives. I enjoyed visiting his manicured garden and loved seeing him with his beloved dog on his lap. He lived a good long life and as a senior survivor in the family, I will greatly miss him.
