Bertha Hernandez Djahanbani

JAN 14, 1950 - APR 25, 2019

Bertha Hernandez Djahanbani passed away April 25, 2109 in Burlingame, CA. Born in 1950 in Uruapan, Michoacán, Mexico, Bertita migrated to the United States when she was in her teen years. She worked as a caregiver, had a tremendous heart, and didn't hesitate in helping someone in need. She was the widower of Shahriar "Shawn" Djahanbani who passed away about 3 years ago. Bertita enjoyed socializing with loved ones and was a great cook, who made extremely delicious ribs, salmon and many other dishes her food was delicious. She enjoyed going to friend events, and was a huge Harry Potter fan loved his movies. Her latest favorite movie was Disney's Coco. She's stayed in contact with lifelong friends and she treated them like family. We always enjoyed Bertita's company and some of us stay very closed to her. Bertita was so kind, and always helping people. Her positive energy was always felt. She will be extremely missed, and Shawn will always hold a special place in our hearts. Great friends like family no doubt. She will always be in our heart and memories. With Love and Respect RIP Bertita. Spanish Bertita, Nacio en 1950 en Uruapan, Michoacan Mexico, llego a los estados unidos en su juventud.
