Randall W. Tonelli

OCT 9, 1942 - JUL 28, 2018

Randall (Randy) Tonelli Long time Bay Area Pharmacist, Randy Tonelli, passed away peacefully with his family by his side on July 28, 2018. Randy was born in San Francisco and attended School of the Epiphany and Riordan High School. He graduated as a Doctor of Pharmacy from the University of Wyoming. Randy was a huge supporter of the local sports teams and a loyal fan. He was a past member of the Italian American Social Club in San Francisco and the California Golf and Country Club in South San Francisco where he enjoyed many rounds of golf with his friends. More than anything he loved helping people and was one of the kindest, most generous people on this earth. He was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother and uncle. He is survived by his loving wife Pearl, his daughters Tiffany Sims and Marla Singer (Stuart), his sisters Nancy Caramella (Richard) and Christine Mandoli (Mark), his aunt Elsie Tonelli, 5 adoring grandchildren and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. A memorial funeral service will be held at Skylawn Funeral Home, San Mateo, on Monday, August 6th at 11:00 A.M. Reception will follow. Donations may be made in his honor to the Mission Hospice and Home Care at 1670 Amphlett Blvd, Suite 300, San Mateo, Ca 94402 or the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society or to a charity of your choice.
