Uncle Harry was my hero... When our father passed away he filled our fathers shoes like no other could. We always knew we had him to count on. No matter what we faced in life he always had his door opened to us. My two brothers who loved him dearly Steve and Mike Hesse I'm sure were there to welcome him home with fishing poles in hand. Harry was a great man with a big as life personality that we all adored. He will be missed by all ... especially by the Hesse's... God speed Uncle Harry...

I was lucky to live next door to the Bode's. After the fishing trips, his catch would be on display on the front driveway for all to see. What a site it was.
