My remembrance of memory of Tito Ed is that going to Auntie Grace place in American Canyon every Christmas of every year and he's buzz he always refer me to my brother. He was a good great uncle and all. But there's was times he went overdramatic with his family or sort of strange behavioral outburst. I always see him as a happy family with his wife and his grown up kids. For now I know he's up there with my Uncle Salvador, My beloved Dad, and my NINI. He lived a very long and productive life. Also coming from the Pico Clan I'll miss the times seeing a caring, loving, and respectful father and husband to his beloved family that he'll b miss. I gave to my condolences to the Mayang family that he was a good father and husband. Also he's been a good friend to me and my family too. Thanks for making ours lives memorable and unforgettable Tito Ed. May God be with you.

I will miss him even though I just got to meet him at justine's pre wedding dinner and at her wedding. I'm so glad I got to hang with him. He was so nice.the sweetest man that ever lived. He liked my curly hair. I'm blessed that I got to meet such a wonderful human being.
