Pauline Marie Picchi

DEC 8, 1949 - MAY 18, 2016

On Wednesday, May 18th, Pauline Picchi passed in the comfort of her home in San Mateo, CA while surrounded by her family. 66 years of age, Pauline lived vivaciously and courageously despite her battle with liver cancer. Born December 8, 1949 in Elizabeth, NJ to Agatha and Gaspare LoGiudice, she lived in San Mateo for all but the first two years of her life. She is survived by her soulmate and husband of 32 years, Daniel Picchi; only child, Joseph Picchi; sister, Lillian Santangelo; brother, Joseph LoGiudice; nephews Michael LoGiudice, Anthony and Daniel Vassallo; niece, Lilliana LoGiudice. Predeceased by her niece, Tina Vassallo (2006); stepfather Mark "Toshinori" Nakai (2016). Pauline appreciated and promoted the arts beginning in the Sicilian restaurant she owned with her brother, Paul Joe's, in San Carlos, CA. After retiring, she brought her culinary talents to Toque BlanchÃ© in Half Moon Bay, CA. Honest, humorous, and loving, she will be missed internationally by those blessed to have known her. Pauline's family thanks you for your generous outpouring of support and prayers. Funeral Mass will commence on Friday, May 27th at 10:00 a.m. at Immaculate Heart of Mary (IHM) in Belmont. God bless you.

So sad to hear of the passing of Paulie Girl. I remember she used to diaper little Joey and place the pacifier in his mouth. RIP and condolences to the Family.

We were shocked and deeply saddened to learn that Pauline has left this world, but all who knew her must certainly know that she left it a better place. She had a sparkle and generosity of spirit that touched so many lives. Our deepest sympathy to Danny, Joey, and everyone in her close-knit and loving family. Cyril and Mary Christensson

Pauline made the restaurant she owned in San Carlos, CA. She looked, acted and emanated of her father, Gaspare, a stubborn, successful Sicilian. Without her, Paul Joes would have never made it! She taught her brother, Little Joe how to conduct himself and often slapped him for stepping out of line. Ah, those were the days. RIP and thanks for the memories. Love, Tony Artale.
