Dearest Mom, it's been 6 years and I still miss you just the same. God has strengthened me to deal with your passing day by day. I remember and have held on to all of the important things you taught me. I miss all the love, compassion and concern you had for me, and all of us. There is nothing like a mother's love. I hope you know how much I love and adored you and always will. Rest in peace. Love you forever, Patty Cake

To Bobby, Pat and the whole Blue, Brewer and Joseph Family – it was my privilege and a true blessing to have known Nettie over the years. I remember her and Mr. Joseph coming to my 50th surprise birthday party, our Good Hope Baptist Church days and Sunrise Services where the men cooked breakfast and all of us just loving on each other, catching up while laughing and having a wonderful time. God is truly Love and Nettie was, too. I will keep each of you in prayer for your individual healing process. Know that she will always be with each of you in the things that you do, the words you speak, the look you give and the way that you carry yourself in the caring ways your Mother taught and instilled in you. It is in these ways that Nettie will always be present. Much love to all of you! Dawn ??
