Wang-Hsin Chao

JAN 1, 1970 - MAR 16, 2016

Mrs. Chao passed away peacefully on March 16, 2016 in Alameda CA, surrounded by her family. She was born in China in 1935. She was a dedicated nurse, a devoted wife, a loving mother and a doting grandmother. Mrs. Chao loved spending time with her family and friends. She enjoyed being outdoors, singing, and cooking. She was known for her 麻婆豆腐 (Ma-Po Tofu), 葱油饼 (scallion pancake), and 水饺 (dumplings), which are her granddaughters' favorite dishes. For those who knew Mrs. Chao, you have been touched by her contagious laugh and her sweet smile. She is survived by her siblings, Phyllis Juo, Yung Shen Wu, and Don Tsou; her daughters, In-Chian Tang and In-Bey Chao; her granddaughters, Ariana, Olivia and Moriah. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to your favorite charity in her name.

Hi, IN-Chian and IN-Bey, I am very saddened to hear your recent loss. I met your mother 36 years ago in Cleveland, Ohio. We found that your father, Dr. Chao, used to work with my father, Dr. Liao in the same hospital in Taichung, Taiwan. So, I called your father, uncle Chao, and your mother, auntie Tsou. respectfully. Your parents took care of me and my family with special caring mind. Your mother taught me how to make ??? (scallion pancake) which I enjoyed very much. Her vegetable ?? (dumplings) was delicious too. Your mother has been always in my thoughts... May she rest in peace. Sister Liao
