Charles Wilbert Greer

DEC 22, 1923 - JAN 18, 2016

Charles Wilbert Greer III December 22, 1923 – January 18, 2016 Charles Wilbert Greer III gently passed away late in the morning of January 18, 2016 in Sunnyvale, California. Born December 22, 1923 in Minneapolis, Minnesota, he had just turned 92, and though his health had been failing these last months, he applauded with gusto after hearing his birthday song sung to him. Charles, known to everyone as Chuck, was a man who enjoyed fishing and golf, was a voracious reader, loved cinema, and never missed his evening cocktail, even while on hospice. A graduate from Annapolis Naval Academy in 1945, he went on to serve his country during wartime. His career was made at Graybar Electric; he loved the work, the camaraderie, and the connections maintained after retirement. We, his family, are most grateful he spent so many of his years as a father of four, grandfather, and great-grandfather. He is preceded by his wife, MaryEllen Greer, and survived by his great, boisterous family. Though many of us ruffled his feathers, we know he loved each and every one of us.

Janet and I had the exquisite pleasure to meet Chuck at Mary and Charlie's wedding in 2013. A pleasant and gracious man, we could see he had raised a fine family as we interacted with all. This is his legacy, and we are saddened by his loss, and wish we'd been closer. May all who knew and loved him be heartened by the grace of God, and the knowledge that he rests in a good place.
