Don Laws

SEP 5, 1946 - DEC 18, 2015

Don C. Laws was born in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. He was raised in Battle Creek, Michigan with his three brothers and two sisters. He excelled at football in high school and moved to California to play for a semi-pro team. Don moved on to work at various technology companies until he found his calling and opened his own successful lighting business. He worked hard and loved his family dearly. He fought a good fight to the very end. He is survived by his two daughters and his son, three grandchildren, one great-grandchild, his brother, and two sisters. Don leaves his family with an amazing legacy that will never be forgotten.
