Craig Lee Mangan

AUG 17, 1951 - AUG 25, 2015

Craig Mangan passed away peacefully on Tuesday, August 25 surrounded by his loving family, Judy, wife, his children, Lisa Hayes(Jeff)and Brian(fiance, Gina). He is also survived by his mom and dad, Patricia and Tom, his sister and nephew, Debbie and Nick, and inlaws, Neil and Judi, Ann and Randy, nieces and nephews, Leslie(Adam), Everly and Chris(Jenny), as well as many other loving relatives.Craig worked for United Air Lines for several years(Hawaii was his favorite destination) and acquired his Masters in Human Resources. He went to work as well for the Giants in Guest Services, as a press elevator operator, a job he thoroughly enjoyed. Baseball was his favorite sport. He finished his career as an educator doing work as a substitute teacher, a para-educational aide and a tutor. He loved working with the children. Craig went through his life sharing his great sense of humor, right to the end.Services for Craig were held privately for his immediate family. For more details of Craig's life visit the website at www.skylawnmemorialpark.com. It is requested because of Craig's love of baseball and children that donations be made in his memory to support the Jr. Giants. Please make a check payable to the Giants Community Fund and send it c/o Judy Mangan to 875-A Island Dr., #417 Alameda,CA 94502-6768. All donations will be submitted at the end of the baseball season in October.

I didn't know Mr. Mangan well, but I felt like I did the way Lisa talked about her dad and her family. My best memory of him will be of the 5 minutes he took to tell me about his backyard while a yard sale was being held in the front – it's like I can see him in slow motion as he took the few steps down and walked the perimeter of the yard while Lisa stood next to me and my family. My thoughts are with you, Mangan Family.
