Luree Baker Jr.

AUG 11, 1943 - DEC 14, 2014

Luree Baker Jr. was born in Louisiana on August 11th 1943 in New Orleans, Louisiana to Luree and Helen. He is preceded in death by his father Luree A. Baker Sr. and his beloved wife, Patricia A. Baker. Luree received his formal education in San Francisco, CA attending Sacred Heart Catholic School (where he was an altar boy, for which he was forever proud); Poly Technical High School, City College of San Francisco, and received both his B.A and M.A from San Francisco State University. He taught theater arts at San Francisco City College and San Francisco State University, worked at the Palace of Fine Arts, San Francisco Opera, and eventually the San Francisco Symphony until he retired in 2009. Luree was also a member of I.A.T.S.E Local #16 for more than 27 years. Luree leaves behind his mother, Helen C. Baker, many family members, relatives and friends. He will be sorely missed. Eternal Rest grant unto him O' Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen. A private memorial service will be held in Luree's honor on January 15th at Skylawn Funeral Home.

Luree was a strong, kind presence in the theater building at City College of San Francisco in the early 70s. I was so happy to see him working the stage at Davies Symphony Hall 20 years later, and thought he remembered me – as he must have hundreds of other students – when I'd say hello to him (my wife thought I was being too forward, but Luree inspired a fellowship with countless young people). Love and happy memories to Luree and his family. Emmet Barton

I just found out about Luree passing. He was a wonderful friend. I am so sorry that I did not know about this sad event. My prayers go out to his family and he will always remain in my prayers and with the fondest of memories. I met Luree at City College and we remained friends for all these years. I will miss him.
