Billy is the third born of seven siblings Lived in the US for more than 40 year's. Billy is survived by his three children, Cesar, Bogart, and Miriam. He's also survived by his grandchildren, Fiorella and Billy. He's brothers and sisters, Alfonso, Luis, Axel, Roy, Ingridh and Veronica as well as his nieces and nephews. His biggest passions since a little boy were playing soccer, arts/drawing, not to mention his admiration for beautiful women as he grew to manhood. His good looks, great personality, and sense of humor made him loveable and admired by all. His passion for music was great that he become the lead drummer for his brothers' and friends' band. Billy became a major contributor of the Guatemalan community. Through-out the years Billy held many leadership roles such as- Secretary, Treasure and President for many years of the Centro Cultural Guatemalteco, his concerns, goals and dreams had always been to showcase and maintain the Guatemalan traditions & Celebrations in the bay area. Anyone who met Billy can attest that not only was Billy a gentleman, but a caring, lovable and justice person & a great dancer. His love for all types of music was well known, especially the Beatles and the Marimba, which he held close to his heart. We will miss you and will carry you in our hearts, your smile will shine with every marimba song we hear.
