Damasa P. Liberato

DEC 11, 1926 - OCT 14, 2014

Damasa Liberato, better known as Masy or Mommy Masing, passed away at Kaiser Permanente South San Francisco Medical Center on Tuesday, October 14, 2014. She was a beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. Born in 1926 in Las Pinas, Philippines, Damasa was a long time resident of Daly City. She worked for many years at CNA Insurance before retiring in the 1980s. She was the eldest of six children and raised three children of her own. Always devoted to her family, she worked hard to relocate them to California for a better life. She loved her San Francisco Giants, playing mah-jong, and preparing her signature bundt cakes and fried chicken for family gatherings. She is survived by her three loving children, eight grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, extended family, and many friends too numerous to list but not forgotten. She will be missed by all that knew and loved her. The Skylawn Funeral Home has been entrusted with arrangements.
