Dear Uncle Leung, May you rest in peace! As a faithful Catholic, you will now be serving God happily in Heaven, smiling down upon us all. We will miss your sense of humour and cooking! Respectfully, Mui and Kwong (now in Hong Kong)

I would like to offer my deepest sympathies to you. Although we haven't met, all of us have experienced the loss of a loved one. I recently lost my mother and know the pain of a broken heart. Our Heavenly Father feels our pain. Psalms 34:18 assures us that He is near to those broken at heart. He does, however, hold out a promise that in the very near future He will wipe out all tears of sorrow and pain from our eyes and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:3-5) He also promises to remember all those in the memorial tombs (graves) and restore them to life. (John 5:28,29) Until those words are fulfilled, may you find much peace and comfort in God and in His promises found in the Holy Scriptures.
