I will always remember Phil in his bright red sweater vest at Christmas time, always ready with a great smile and a warm handshake. Great man, he was.

Our deepest condolences. I knew and liked Phil as a fellow student in high school. We used to laugh and joke and compete in English class. I would see him every ten years at reunions and pick up our conversations and joking until the next ten years. We worked together on the fiftieth reunion and he brought "Uncle Phil's cookies that he made to our reunion meetings. We all grieved when our classmates took a detour off this earth. I feel shock and deep sadness. My husband and I grieve with your family for dear Phil. Linda and Bob Silva
