Mere words cannot fully express the sorrow that is felt over the loss of Joseph. As the days and months go by, it will be the little things that you will remember, the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter. And although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memories of those little things that help to push away the pain and bring some of the smiles back again. ?I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life?. John 11:11,21-26; Matthew 5:5. May God's tender mercies comfort you and may you find strength in His everlasting love. My deepest condolences.
