Richard K. Lee

JUN 1, 1956 - FEB 23, 2014

Obituary for Richard Lee, CPA. Richard Lee, aged 57, of San Leandro, passed away on February 23, 2014. He was born in China, to Wang S. Lee and Mo Y. Lee. He attended California State University in San Francisco. He owned an accounting firm, serving his beloved clients all over the world. On June 10, 2004, he was married to Tammy. Richard grew up in Hong Kong. He moved to Boston shortly after graduating high school. Then he had a short stay in Washington DC before discovering the beautiful California sunshine. He moved to San Francisco in the Summer of 1975 and went to City College during the day time and worked as a waiter at night time. He worked as a waiter and then a Captain in a prestigious restaurant, Trader Vic's. A few year later he decided to go back to university to finish his Accounting degree. He graduated with honor and became a CPA. With his hard work and dedication, he became the CFO of his beloved organization, Trader Vic's, and also his favorite restaurant. He was living the great American Dream. Richard is survived by Brandon and Andrew. A Service in his honor will be held at Skylawn Funeral Home and Memorial Park on this Saturday, March 1st, at 10:00 am. Skylawn Funeral Home, FD# 1848 Hwy 92 at Skyline Blvd. San Mateo, CA, US, 94402 (650) 349-4411 Home Celebration of Life Reception to follow services in Trader Vic's Restaurant in Emeryville at 1:30 pm in the afternoon. Richard has been our CPA for close to 20 years. He has become a dear friend in the process. We could always count on him to give us sound advice. As a matter of fact we spoke with him in January needing his advice once again. Richard was as honest as the day is long. We would trust him with our life. Richards smile could always make me feel better on a rotten day. He made the best of life, sometimes out of rotten circumstances. He used to fly from Northern Ca to Southern Ca to do our books. Some of the best memories are of him staying in our home and experiencing foods we would cook. Sometimes for the first time. He did love to eat. LOL My heart is just broken for his family, especially those beautiful boys. My prayers will be for them tonight. I can't believe I just received this news. Richard, my friend you will be greatly missed. May you soar to great heights in heaven with our Lord.

We always knew we could count on Richard for advice and service. He always kept his word. Richard was an intelligent, cheerful, kind, truthful, unselfish honorable man. Richard always seemed to be smiling. His smile brightened up the room and made you want to smile too. Richard's smile would only grow larger when he spoke of his family. Family pictures displayed in his office showed how proud he was of his wife and sons'. One time he filed a income tax return for an elderly family member and did not charge for his services. That exemplifies what type of man Richard was. We will miss him deeply. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the Lee family, friends and clients as they go through this difficult time. May the Lord bring you comfort. Karen and Asdrubal Groschel
