Nina Jauw

JUN 22, 1966 - JAN 24, 2014

In our hearts, we will always love Nina Jauw, mother of Justin and pups, Sasha, Kira and Olive. Nina was born in Hong Kong on a rainy Wednesday, June 22, 1966 as a beautiful daughter to Jan and Nini and baby sister to Jeffrey and Janie. She studied at the Jakarta International School before going to California to graduate with a degree in Psychology and Business from the College of Notre Dame. Nina moved to Singapore and worked at the Grand Hyatt, before discovering her two passions: Motherhood and philanthropy. These areas consumed her time for the last decade or so. An example of the tireless philanthropist she was, Nina founded the JDH Research Fund at Stanford University which researched brain functions in children with Aspergers. She was also very involved with the Yale Child Studies Centre, Hillsborough Schools Foundation, the Edgewood Centre for Children and Families and the San Francisco Zoo. And of course, her legacy and pride, Justin. Nina leaves behind her beloved 13 year old son, Justin Hong; both her parents; siblings Jeffrey, Janie and Jason; nieces Jessica, Jennifer, Jamie, Amanda and Jillian, and nephew Jonathan. May Nina rest in peace together with her brother Julian. Memorial gifts "In Memory Of" (IMO) Nina Jauw can be made in her name, in honor and memory of her, to The JDH Research Fund. For gifts by check, please write in the Memo section "IMO Nina Jauw – The JDH Research Fund". The actual accounting code for The JDH Research Fund is GHDKN if you want to include the code in the memo line. Here is the mailing address for the checks: Stanford University Development Services P.O. Box 20466 Stanford, CA 94309-0466 Phone: (650) 725-4360 For any gifts by credit card, please call Development Services at (650) 725-4360 and select the option for Gift Processing — let them know you are making a gift in memory of Nina Jauw to the JDH Research Fund (GHDKN).

My deepest condolences to Justin and the rest of Nina's family. She was such a special glowing light to her friends and family in the few years that we lived near one another. Always so caring, giving and thoughtful of others. Justin was the "apple of her eye" and it was so amazing to see the special bond they had between them.

Dear Nina, The first time I met you, we were shopping at Link, and I remember I was in awe of how beautiful you were! And as I got to know you and shared many aspects of high and low of our lives, we learned and experienced God, it was a wonderful time of friendship and support. Then I learned another side of you, a loving and dedicated mother! How you took such good care of Justin!! A proud mother, and yes he's soo cute and well brought up! I'll miss you Nina!! You'll always be in my thoughts. Evi Lauw

Nina, we will miss you. Your generosity, enthusiasm and kindness will live on in the many children that you have helped. Our team is deeply grateful that you reached out to us. Without your enthusiasm we would not have made as much progress as we have. I feel blessed that you supported our work unconditionally and I only wish I could have done more for you. I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the Jauw-Darmadi and Hong families. I hope that some day I will be able to tell all of you how much Nina helped our cause and what a difference that will make for children and adults with psychiatric disease. Nina, we will miss your vision and your warmth. Rest in peace.

You can shed tears that she is gone, or you can smile because she has lived. You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back, or you can open your eyes and see all she's left. Your heart can be empty because you can't see her, or you can be full of the love you shared. You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember her only that she is gone, or you can cherish her memory and let it live on. You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back. Or you can do what she'd want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

I feel so blessed to have known Nina and to have shared the joy of helping her embrace her inner philanthropist. Nina came to me several years ago at Stanford Medicine to begin exploring her interest in neuroscience, a journey that brought her to the lab of Dr. Ricardo Dolmetsch, a brilliant young scientist whose work is revolutionary and amazing. She established the JDH Research Fund to support Dr. Dolmetsch's scientific discoveries and helped catapult his career. It was an amazing act of generosity, which led to more acts and her eventual support of the great work also taking place at the Palo Alto Medical Foundation where she supported the Adolescent Behavioral Health program among others. Nina, you have always given of your heart, your time, and your soul without condition and with true kindness. I know you will rest in God's loving embrace. My family share's our deepest sympathies with the Jauw-Darmadi-Hong families, and will always keep you in our hearts. God bless.

This is what I imagine my best friend, Nina will say to me and her loved ones "Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I'm following the path GOD has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard him call I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day To laugh, to love, to work, to play. Tasks left undone must stay that way I found the peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss Oh yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savoured much Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
