Trinidad Sylvester

AUG 10, 1922 - OCT 31, 2013

Trinidad Sylvester went to rest on October 31, 2013 at 4:40am in Makati Medical Center, Makati, Metro Manilla, Philippines. She was surrounded by family during her time of passing at age 91. She was a beloved mother, grandmother, great-grand mother and a friend. She was the center, and the glue to our large family. Trinidad was born in Umingan, Pangasinan, Philippines on August 10, 1922. She lived a simple life, dedicated in helping her family, in any way she knew how. Trinidad married Hubert Earl Sylvester in 1953 and raised their six children in Rosales Pangasinan Philippines. Throughout her married life, she raised her children as a simple homemaker and a loving wife. After the passing of her husband, her children and herself had moved to the United States of America. She continued to provide and help her children as best she could while being in a new country. Trinidad continued to visit the Philippines, but when she was in the United States, she lived with her sister, Beatriz, and was strong in her faith and continued until the end of her days. Trinidad is survived by 7 children: Petronila, Elizabeth Ann, Ligaya May, Hubert Earl Junior, Ruth Ellen, Ana Belle, & John Daniel, and survived by, 19 grandchildren and 8 great- grandchildren. With many friends and family.
