Kathryn L. McFarland

AUG 20, 1949 - AUG 5, 2013

Kathryn L. McFarland passed away peacefully at home on August 5, 2013, which was the date of her 41st wedding anniversary. She fought an almost 4 year battle with cancer. She is survived by her husband, John, who was her caregiver during her long illness. Kathy is also survived by her daughter, Sara K. McFarland, her son, Scott R. McFarland, her sister, Sarah Boggs, her brothers-in-law, Michael Mannion and William W. McFarland, and her sister-in-law, Nancy K. McFarland. Kathy worked for over 17 years in teaching and management positions with the Peninsula Family YMCA of San Mateo, CA. Before her illness, she was also a certified Pilates instructor and teacher at a private studio in Burlingame. Her life-long interests were music, dancing, exercise, fitness, astronomy, and hiking (especially in the Lake Tahoe area). She will be forever missed by family and friends. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested a donation to the American Cancer Society.

For some reason, Kathy popped into my head today so I searched to see what she was up to these days. I was very sorry to read this news. She was my manager at the YMCA 20 years ago and she was a kind, fun, and energizing person to work with with. She was a source of kindness and friendship when I needed it as a new parent and I'll never forget her!

I remember planning a surprise birthday for Kathy's 40th with our senior fitness group. We had a cake shaped like a dumbbell with 'K' in the Superman logo. Kathy was adored by her students.
