She will be dearly missed and eternally loved by her surviving wife of 22 years, Nancy Manns; siblings, Howard Burdick and Jean Traverse; Aunt, Beverly Clark; nieces and nephews; her extended family, Beatrice Manns, Roseann, Tiffany, David, Jennifer, Sierra, Vincent, and Kayla Nabors. Also her many friends who are too numerous to list, but know how much she loved them. Joan's interests included her beloved Red Sox, Harleys, and of course, animals. Joan's quick wit and unique sense of humor never failed to brighten the lives of everyone she met. Her incredible ability to remain positive in spite of life's challenges was truly amazing and inspiring. Making people smile was Joan's goal in life, and she far exceeded that goal. Met Joanie at work, West Portal office in SF in the late 80's. She was kind & sweet to everyone & was liked & loved by all. We worked for quite a few years then Joan transferred out of SF. A few years later I transferred to Burlingame & worked with both Joan & Nancy until the office closed in 2000. That was topped off by attending a PacBell reunion that Bob Tobener threw together. It was a great time had by all! There are pictures of that occasion out there somewhere. Was glad to hear that Joan enjoyed the job she transferred to after our office closed. Nancy, hugging you now. So sorry for the loss of your best friend, partner in love & life. On behalf of her PacBell friends & fans... Rest in Peace sweet Joanie.

Unkie, you were the best aunt and friend I could have asked for. I'm sure we would have been more like sisters if we didn't live so far apart. The last time I saw you was in 2009 when we visited the museum of science in Boston. I cherish the memories of you and am so glad to be related to you. You taught me so much about life and taught me right and wrong on many takes in life. I love you forever and always. Thank you for being such an amazing person

Joan loved to play ABBA songs when we were hanging out playing Backgammon. . I have a dream, a fantasy To help me through reality And my destination makes it worth the while Pushing through the darkness still another mile I believe in angels Something good in everything I see I believe in angels When I know the time is right for me I'll cross the stream - I have a dream
