Victor J Guarnieri

DEC 14, 1915 - APR 11, 2013

Victor John GaurnieriVictor Gaurniri died of natural causes after a long illness at Sequoia Hospital in Redwood City, on April 11 in the early morning. Victor was born in Detroit Michigan December 14, 1915. Victor, a WWII Veteran and his wife Hattie (Fran) moved to Redwood City shortly after his discharge from the US Army, where he served as an officer. In Redwood City he worked as a Mail Man at the Redwood City Post Office where he worked until his retirement. Victor and Hattie made their home on Buckingham Ave in Redwood City. They shared their home with his sister. He also built a small apartment on the property for his wife's sister. For recreation Victor and Hattie explored trail riding in their VW dune buggy. Victor was also an avid bowler. Much of his bowling was done at San Carlos Bowling alley Victors ashes will be scattered on land adjacent to the Pacific Coast. Funeral Mass will be held at St Anthony's Catholic Church in Redwood City on Monday, April 22, 2013 at 10am. Following the funeral mass there will be a small ceremony at Skylawn where the ashes will be spread.
