MAY 22, 1967 - MAR 5, 2013

Lana (Anguiano) Avery Resident of Winton, California May 22 1967- Mar. 5, 2013 Born at St. Luke's Hospital in San Francisco, California, Lana grew up in San Bruno where she attended Belle- Aire, Parkside and Capuchino Schools. She was a kind girl who opened her heart to everyone. She married, had children, divorced and remarried again. She eventually settled in the Central Valley, where she was a nursing assistant before her diabetes got the best of her. She never met a stranger, everyone was welcomed and loved. Lana was a devoted daughter, mother and grandmother. She always put family above all else. Her husband, children and grandchildren were her reason for living. She was a wonderful wife, daughter, sister, mother, grandmother and friend. Our hearts are heavy and she will be missed. May she rest in peace. Lana is survived by her parents, Frank and Nina Anguiano, Rick Avery, (husband), daughters Tiffany (Kevin) Fagan and Kristina Avery, sons Justin (Gail) Burchett, Christopher (Jessica) Burchett and Brian Avery, her sister Natalie (Victor) and brother Armando Anguiano, grandchildren; Halie, Isabella, Devin, Dillin, Liam, Natalie and Lana and many loving nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and many close friends. My name is Tina Johnson Patton. I have been searching the internet for years for Lana and I am so saddened to find this. I went to Belle-Air and Parkside with Lana when I was growing up. She was my best friend. She taught me some sign language because we had a deaf student in our class. I went to her house and played and she came to mine. I remember her parents and sister. She was a great person and a great friend. R.I.P. Lana. I never forgot you. My family just moved back to Alabama when we were 13 and I lost contact but I always thought about you through the years.
