Cyrilla Takakura

JUL 14, 1932 - JUL 25, 2012

Remembrances of a cherished lifetime~Please join us in celebration of our mom, Cyrilla Takakura's legacy. We will be gathering together in Skylawn's Crystal Springs Chapel on Friday August, 3rd at 2pm. After the memorial service we would like to invite you to an adjoining room for appetizers and refreshments. We would also request that you jot down your thoughts, any and all stories, jokes and memories in the online guest book.

Happy 2013 New Year to all who read this log ! I'd like to thank all the friends and family that have contributed their thoughts, love and laughter to this memorial. It's comforting to me to see this history of our mother from these entries – the experiences you've had are consistent with what we – as her children perceive her to be. Thank you and God Bless !

Am so out of touch...was not aware that Cy passed away in July or my daughters and I would have been there to support you all. She was the best second-mother I could have ever had, and you all were my family. Am so deeply grateful to all of you for all you've done for me throughout my life and for your mom and dad's great example as loving, kind, accepting, amazing people. Cy will be very much missed, as she was a guiding light to many who didn't have great families like the Takakuras! Bless you all in the loss of your sweet Mom. Love, Jennifer (James) and Jamie Taylor Haderlie, Jessica and Johanna Taylor Cedar Hills, UT

I am so very sorry to hear about your Mom's passing. Cyrilla and I were second cousins. My mother, Mary Castro Kalepa, and your grandma, Jean Fukumoto, were first cousins. Her grandfather (Frank Castro) and my grandfather (Manuel Castro) were brothers.(Not to be confused with your Uncle Manuel Castro). They lived two houses apart in Lahaina. Your Aunt Jean and I were closer in ages. I last saw your mom at the funeral for your Aunt Jean. Now that I look back, it seems that the only times we saw each other, was at a funeral.Sadly, our youth went by too fast. I will always cherish the memories we had growing up in homestead (Lahaina)with our Castro cousins.##imported-begin##Lillian Suter##imported-end##

Cy and I worked together for many years. She was a strong, supportive, fun-loving ally and friend when I was in Marketing at Fluor. Our friendship continued when we both worked at MRDI in San Mateo. In recent years, we mostly aw each other to celebrate our July birthdays with our other good friend Louise. Cy was a dear friend. My thoughts and prayers go out to Debbie, Joyce, Linda and David.##imported-begin##Susan Meister##imported-end##

Hey Cy,I really wish I could have seen you one last time. To thank you really. If not for the talk we had, I probably wouldn't be here in New York now. I wish I could be with everyone, but I trust all is well. If anyone else sees or reads this, please place a flower for me :)Eric##imported-begin##Eric Valencia##imported-end##

Cy's passing is saddening and joyous. Sad for the family in grief missing the love, joy and connection with the center of the Takakura Family. Joyous for the reconnection with George and her lost family from years past. She is in a better place and we are lucky to have been touched by her while on this earth. Our prayers will be with you today. God's Peace##imported-begin##Vince and Betsie Brennan##imported-end##

They always say you marry the family not just the girl and we all know that mother-in-laws come in lots of flavors. When I married Linda, I hit the jackpot in mother-in-laws. Cy knew how to help but not interfere, how to advise but not nag, how to laugh and cry at just the right moments. I will miss her. Oh, and just so Jae and Jody know, I was her favorite son-in-law. Peace and love be always with you.##imported-begin##Rob Campbell##imported-end##

I will always remember Cy as a kind, giving person. I remember once when Beannie Babies were all the rage and Susan, my wife, and Amy, my daughter and I stopped by to visit Cy and she gave our daughter several Beannie Babies and we saw her collection and heard her stories of waiting in line to get a special Beannie Baby. Cy was a one of a kind person, we ate at her home and she and George came to ours. I will always remember what a GREAT person she was!##imported-begin##Carl Meister##imported-end##

I have so many fond memories of Cy ...our trip to Lindas ...Katlin was our little buddy and when I was in San Mateo had fun with Lucy and enjoyed meeting all you girls and Dave. When she came to Tulsa .. it was in the spring and the Bradford pear trees were all in full bloom ...she thought they were beautiful !! As we sat upstairs on our computers by an open door the smell was terrible only to find our those beautiful trees did not smell so good and from then on Cy called them "Stinkie Trees" and every spring would ask me if the "Stinkie Trees" were blooming. Just a little quip from CyMY THOUGHTS AND PRAYERS ARE WITH THE FAMILY TODAY AND MAY ALL THE GREAT PHOTOS AND TIMES YOU HAD WITH YOUR MOM SUSTAIN YOU THRU THIS SAD TIME

To the wonderful Takakura Family, I have been praying hard for Mom's recovery but know that God has His own plan for each and everyone of us. I miss and love her immensely and God knew it was time for Mom to arrive into her heavenly glory after a life well lived. Our Lord knew that her work on earth is complete and now comes the time for Mom's reward. Mom's life touched more people than she'll ever realize!..mine especially. I'm grieving for all of our loss but find great comfort in knowing that she is now enjoying her new body and was welcomed by our Lord saying "Well done good and faithful servant". I can only imagine the excellent reunion going on right now in heaven. May the party last until all of us are together once again, just like old times. Cyrilla has been, and is, one of the single most important people in the world to me. It was only through her that I met and became part of the Takakura Family. What started out as a working relationship at Fluor Daniel, through Cy's kindness, soon became a life long commitment to a family that most people can only hope to be a part of. I will forever be grateful to my loving Mother in Law for letting me become a part of all of your lives. And she blessed me with the most precious gift of all!..a loving wife and life partner!..my beautiful Joey, and then our beautiful Illuminada Cyrilla. I love and miss you Joey. Take your time but please come home soon. I guess somehow Cy could always sense that I was alone and longing to be part of a real family. And I thank God that she did. I now have a treasure trove of memories. Memories full of all of our years together. I'm praying that we have many more years ahead. I have truly been blessed by knowing Cyrilla and having her let me become a part of all your lives. I'm not good at words but so very much want all of you to know that I am forever grateful to Mom, will miss her until we meet again, love her immensely and am deeply pained by her passing. What a wonderful person she was, opening her home to Robbie and me, immediately accepting us and making all feel at home in the Takakura house. Thank you for sharing Mom with me, THANK YOU SO VERY MUCH. Please be at peace, stay safe, and come visit soon. I pray that the common grief we share will bring us closer together as a family. God bless Cyrilla and each of you as well. I love you all, Jody

I remember when we were young, all us kids use to hang out in Grandma's back room. One night Aunty Cy came to check on us. She had her green face mask on walking by the window. Scared the shit out of me, I thought it was the Okake lady. It's funny now since I'm old I love you Aunty

SISTER CY SENT THIS TO ME---Sitting on the side of the highway waiting to catch speeding drivers, a State Police Officer sees a car puttering along route 22MPH.He thinks to himself "T his driver is just as dangerous as a speeder!" So he turns on his lights and pulls the drirer over.Approaching the car, he notices that there are five old ladies-two in the front seat and three in the back wide eyed and whiteas ghosts. l he driver, obviously confused, says to him, "Officer, I don'tunderstand, I was doing exctly the speed limit! What seems to be the problem?" "Ma'am," the offcer replies, "you werent speeding, but you should know that driving slower than the speed limit can also be adanger to other drivers." "slower than the speed limit? No sir, I was doing the speed limit exactly...Twenty- two miles an hour!" the old woman says abit proudly.T he State police officer, trying to contain a chuckle explains to her that "22" was the route number, not the speed limit.A bit embamassed, the woman grinned and thanked the officer for pointing out her error.But before I let you go, Ma'am, I have to ask... Is everyone in this car OK? These women seem awfully shaken and theyhaven't muttered a single peep this whole time," the officer asks with concern."Oh, they'll be all right in a minute officer. We just got off Route 119.###imported-begin##Babs##imported-end##

Memories of my sister-Babs One morning Cy was washing the twins bottles and it started snowing. She ran in and said, "Its Snowing!" We went in the back and it was all white, never saw snow like that before. I wanted to run and play in it but Cy said no dont mark it up so i just had to sit and watch it. One day we were in the kitchen and she decided to put pineapple juicce in a drink pitcher. The pitcher had a whole can of juice and it was completely full and heavy. She told me to open the icebox and she was carrying it on the sides because there was no handle on the pitcher. The pitcher slipped out of her hand it hit the floor, just as every bit of juice went up and came down on her head. We were just laughing as she really looked funny covered in pineapple juice. One day we were cleaning her kitchen and we were washing inside of the stove and some how the oven would not work after that. Only the light would go in the inside of the stove. She laughed and said call Henry and she told him the oven was broken and Henry stuck his head in the oven to see what was wrong. As he stuck his head in there, she turned on the light from the stove and Henry jumped high and we just laughed at him!##imported-begin##Henry and Barbara Endo##imported-end##
