Appreciating the time and effort you put into your site and deiealtd information you offer. It's nice to come across a blog every once in a while that isn't the same unwanted rehashed information. Fantastic read! I've saved your site and I'm including your RSS feeds to my Google account.##imported-begin##Sarah##imported-end##

Dear Brother Leen, I forgot to cruogatnlate for the nice pictures in the ESV Study Bible. Also an interesting tool on line with the registration facility. (It works easier than the Librinox Logos system I also have, but is much more difficult to use.) I prefer on that matter Importantia's OnlineBible (a somewhat wrong name for a very good program of which we offer a basic version to our readers, and Cd's can get Daily reading Notes modules from us for free) Next I use also E-Sword, The Sword, The Word and some others which seem more interesting for good Bible Study then Glo which really looks a very nice gadget and something very attractive for newcomers and laymen on the Bible and its history. It would be great if your drawings would also be incorporated in the Online Bible Software program, and we could use them in our magazines. So perhaps you could come to arrangements with the makers. (Or when you have made modules for that system yourself they also would be welcome by us.)Lots to think of.Success with your work.Yours faithfully,Marcus & Belgian Christadelphians##imported-begin##Andika##imported-end##

We are fortunate to have known Don for a few years. It was a pleasure listening to stories of his growing up on a farm in Canada and some of life's experiences. Don loved to talk about airplanes - he would get really animated and thrilled about the latest aviation technology. We enjoyed those conversations with him.We think everyone who knew him really well would agree that Don was a gentle wonderful person. He will be missed.Nai Lee, we pray that you have comfort in knowing that Don is at peace and is in the arms of the Lord.##imported-begin##Doug & Bing##imported-end##
