It's been many years since I saw Aunt Joyce – I think it was when I picked her and Uncle Carl up at the airport in New York when they were stopping through Connecticut for a visit. Always fun loving and animated – I know my parents loved visiting with them. I feel blessed that I actually got to speak with her earlier this year – she spoke fondly and appreciatively of her family. My condolences to the family – my thoughts are with you. Sincerely, Roberta (Czellecz)

She was a sweet and helpful person — I remember her and your Dad visiting us — it was at the time of their anniversary in the 1990s. They came to Connecticut — it might have been for Aunt Frieda's 90th birthday party. She made a delicious spinach dip and worked diligently on it. It was perfect! Bob and I send our condolences. I'm thankful also that we got to see Wayne and his family when they came up to Connecticut. Blessings on all.##imported-begin##Karen Reed##imported-end##
