Elke Wittenberg

SEP 11, 1941 - JAN 8, 2011

Elke Wittenberg, 69 years of age and resident of Foster City, California has passed away while visiting her survived mother, Agnes and brother Horst Schilling in Salt Lake City Utah due to a stroke. Elke was born September 11, 1941 in Husum Germany, to her parents Ralph and Agnes Schilling. She graduated High School from West High in Salt Lake city. Following her adventures for life, she and her best friends Lilla and Doris decided to relocate in San Francisco California, where she married and had her only son Rodney Wittenberg (survived). Being a single mother and providing for her child, she had many jobs from waitressing, real estate to being part of the HR department for Sanrio, and Quest communication. In her spare time she loved to walk on the beach, listen to music and live jazz bands, go bowling and take her one and only grandson Dustin Wittenberg (survived) to go see musical plays. She also loved to attend arts and craft shows with her friend Ron. Services will be held at Skylawn Memorial Park located at highway 92 and skyline Blvd, San Mateo CA. Sunday January 23rd 2011 at 11am.

Elke loved playing Phase 10 (a card game) and having lunch at my home once every month. We also bowled together for about 14 years and we enjoyed her company. I will miss her and our weekly phone calls.##imported-begin##Theresa Nelson##imported-end##
