Primorosa Carter

JAN 7, 1922 - MAR 19, 2010

Primorosa Carter, 88, passed away on March 19, 2010 after suffering from complications of a massive stroke. She reunited with husband Edward on their 73rd wedding anniversary to spend eternity together. She was a faithful wife, loving mother, and a caring grandmother and great grandmother. Primorosa devoted her life to caring for family. Her mesmerizing green eyes, infectious smile, and unforgettable anecdotes captivated all who knew her. She is survived by children Myrna, Jane, Connie, and Emily; Grand children Mary Ann, Ambie, Theresa, Jemina, Ron, George, Glaucen, Anthony, Ferdinand, Knudsen, Raymond, Rico, Roselle Primrose, Socorro, Katrina, Jose & Robin; and 11 great-grandchildren.

Tita Prim, especially when we used to go to Reno and Lake Tahoe together every year for nearly twenty years with her husband (my late uncle)Tito Ging, my mom and my father(who passed away in 2005).We had such fun together and we I have a lot of really wonderful memories and photos of this time we shared together. Goodbye Tita Prim. I love you! You are now reunited with TitoGing.##imported-begin##Rene##imported-end##

Tita Priming, as we lovingly called her. She always had a smile and was very affectionate towards us.We will miss her, but we know she lived a good long life, one close to Our Lord and now she is joined with her beloved Eddie, our "Tito Ging". May they both rest in eternal peace in the love and grace of God.Our deepest and most heartfelt sympathy to all of the family.We wrap a blanket of Love around all of you today, and in all the days ahead. Praying that will bring your hearts peace and the comfort in knowing she is finally home with God.##imported-begin##Mr. & Mrs. Memo and Kathy Guillen##imported-end##

Rest in peace, Mama Prim. We will remember all the great memories; Your beautiful smile, your jokes, your laughter, and how you cared for us as a mother and grandmother. We will never forget you and words cannot express how blessed we feel to call you our mom...our grandmother. You're in a better place now with God and happily reunited with Lolo Eddie. Dance away together in heaven. We love you, always. – Ping, Emilie, Glaucen, Jenny, Ning & Jiean, Knudssen, Katrina & Aaron###imported-begin###Emilie & Family###imported-end##
