Ronald Ingalsbe

JUL 19, 1951 - AUG 8, 2009

Nickname 'Deadeye' Ronald overcame many obstacles early in life, such as scoliosis of the spine and blindness in his right eye, to become a loving father, friend, musician, master auto-body restorer, and overall good person. Ron was known for his love of old cars, rock'n'roll (he played in many bands including Local Legends and $27 Snap-on Face), and his colorful personality. He will truly be missed. Service: Aug. 22, 2pm at Skylawn Memorial Park, San Mateo. Public Memorial: Aug. 23, 1-10pm at Kings Mountain Fire Station

Ron won't be missed. Many cheered his departure, including me. Ron was a spineless two-faced weasel who would frequently throw temper tantrums. He alienated almost everyone sooner or later with his petty antics and childlike behavior. He looked like, and acted like a troll. He beat women almost as frequently as he beat himself. He was a lousy drummer, which everyone knew but him. He was as dumb as a box of rocks, which was about the only reason people tolerated him at all. He was molested by his father, and of course, he treated his regrettable offspring the same. As bad as he was, he never succeeded in making anyone as miserable as himself, which is what killed him in the end. Drowned in his own cesspool of self pity.##imported-begin##Hugh Jass##imported-end##
