As my heart ached when I heard the shocking news of Hassan's passing a day after his funeral, I remembered the usual laughter in his bright green eyes. In one second, I imagined his walk to the tennis court with his racket, his cheerful waving to his friends, his positive energy, his banter, his laughter,... and tears started rolling down my cheeks; I truly missed him. I thought to myself, life is not the same without his smiley face. I wish I had known he was sick, I wish I had a chance to see him and tell him how wonderful he was. He will always be in my heart.
