my cousin Clem. I will always remember of the few times when I was young going to his house and being able to walk to the beach! How lovely that was! We didn't spend much time together, mostly due to an age thing, however that didn't stop me from thinking about you. This made me realize that I need to stop and make more time to visit with relatives despite me being so far away in Texas now. I know you will be missed by family, friends and all those that you have touched. We will spend more time together when God finds that it is my time as well. God Bless Cora & Chase, and the entire Thompson/Matula family during this time.##imported-begin##Gina Thompson##imported-end##
