Sanjay K. Katyal

FEB 15, 1966 - NOV 20, 2019

Sanjay K. Katyal passed away on 20th November, 2019 in San Francisco, CA. He was born on 15th February, 1966 in New Delhi, India. He was the son of late Jiwan Katyal and his mother is Baljit Katyal. His younger sister is Rohini Hughes. Sanjay was married to Sheetal Mehta. Their daughter is Shireen Katyal. Before moving to the United States, he attended Delhi Public School in New Delhi. He graduated from University of Illinois and went on to do an MBA from The Wharton School, a defining moment in his life. He had an amazing intellect, and was a very warm and kind human being. He worked in some of the most complex organizations in Silicon Valley and was highly valued by his employers. He was a mentor and guide to many in his lifetime. He was especially drawn to Tuscany in Italy, and his dream was to live there. A caring son and brother, and a loving husband and father, he will be deeply missed. Rest In Eternal Peace Dear Sanjay.

Fondest Memory of Sanjay K. Katyal
Sanjay was a remarkable force at Microsoft—brilliant, compassionate, and full of integrity. He had a way of uplifting everyone around him, not just through his intellect and insight, but through his kindness and quiet strength. His love for his wife Sheetal and daughter Shireen was at the very center of his world. He spoke of them often and with such pride and tenderness—there was never any doubt they were the loves of his life. Sanjay would always say he was the one who was blessed, but in truth, we were the fortunate ones. Those of us who had the privilege to collaborate with him, to learn from him, to simply share space with him—we were made better by knowing him. His legacy lives on in the values he carried with such grace and in the hearts of those who loved and respected him. God bless you, Sanjay. - Elizabeth (Liz) Ngo
