Barbara Morris posted:

I was a friend of Elsa's having met via her husband Russell. Russell lived in Louisville and we helped to care for him before he passed. Through that process we remained friends and shared many exchanges. We even visited with her when we were in Milbrae years ago. She was like family. I knew her sight was failing but did not know she had moved until one of my cards and notes to her were returned. As I prepared to send a birthday wish for her 95th I discovered her obituary. It didn't tell me much. I would like to be connected with her friend Carl or other friend or relative. I will remember her fondly and hope she had a peaceful end.
