Mildred C. Buckley

October 24, 1916- May 23, 2020

Mildred was born in Rudy, Arkansas, and passed away peacefully on Saturday, May 23, 2020 in Daly City, California at the age of 103. Mildred was the 2nd of 8 children born to Ella Granger Temple and James Willie McCaslin. Mildred was raised in Arkansas and moved to San Francisco, California as a young adult with her brother, Herold, and her mother, Ella, during World War II. Mildred had a long career as a seamstress working for various companies such as, I.Magnin & Co., and retired as a seamstress from United Airlines. Mildred and her late husband, Bernard Glover Buckley, "Buckley", enjoyed the employee benefit of flying and were known to leave their home in South San Francisco, to fly to Hawaii for a movie or a Don Ho show. Mildred and Buckley raised 3 sons, Robert, Bernerd, and David in the house they purchased in 1952 in South San Francisco. Mildred was still the owner of the house upon her passing. Mildred and Buckley enjoyed spending time with their sons and extended family during family visits to Los Angeles or camping and fishing in Yosemite, Feather River, or Lake Berryessa. Mildred was an avid gardener who saved her seeds to replant the following year. Mildred's heirloom tomatoes were a show-stopper at the traditional large family Thanksgiving dinners that she hosted for many years.

Mildred was preceded in death by her parents, siblings, Herold, Wilma, Lorene, Jacksie, and J.R., her husband, her sons, Robert, and David Buckley, and daughter-in-law, Carla Buckley. Mildred is survived by her sisters, Roberta Ross, Bonnie Stowell, her remaining son, Bernerd Buckley, and daughter-in-law, Dede Buckley. Mildred is survived by her grandchildren, Deanne, Leanne, Robert, Jennifer, Megan, Shannon, Michael, Patrick, Narice, Derek, and 21 great-grandchildren.
