Joy, Bill, Alex, and Andrew, We send virtual hugs, condolences, and share your sadness at Auntie's passing. We recognize her quiet strength living on in all of you. We did not know Auntie well but cherish the times we spent with her. We will always hold dear the scrumptious family curry dinner she prepared so we could enjoy a home cooked meal she mastered in India. We are humbled how we were, and are, welcomed as family. Joy, I'm so happy we also share the fun memory of our night out and yummy dinner with your Mom at the SF Ballet. It was such a treat for me to eat in the Opera House. This note is a placeholder until we can share hugs and memories in person. With love, Pam and Fred

To William, Reenchen, Derek, Stephanie & Joy, Bill, Alex and Andrew Such a heavy heart to learn of Mom's, as we fondly called her, passing. She was an inspiration, a role model on how to live life to the fullest, with fortitude and strength. Her love for her family, immediate and extended, her wonderful cooking, and knowledge of it, her fondness for flowers and growing them, and zest for travel, how she was always impeccably turned out... a pillar of strength for her family members and friends... so many memories. From early Mei Hua times to her visits to Kathmandu from America in the latter years. She will be sorely missed.. our condolences to all the Ma family our prayers are with you in this time of grief. My dear Joy, William & families, My deepest condolences on the loss of your beloved Mom & Grandma. 🙏 Aunty was an incredibly gracious, kind & generous soul. Despite the hardships she experienced throughout her life, she was the epitome of strength and courage and had a zest for life that was inspiring. I feel very blessed to have spent time with Aunty in Nepal and hold fond memories of Aunty's culinary skills & special gift for story-telling. May the many warm memories of moments shared with your Mom & Grandma give you strength and comfort at this very difficult time. ❤️ Leena

Dear Joy, William and families, My deepest condolences at the passing of your beloved Mother and Grand Mother. Aunty Effa was an exceptional person who went through so many challenges in her life. Despite all that, she maintained her wonderful sense of humour. She was generous to everyone and had empathy for those who were less fortunate. Aunty was strong in spirit, resourceful, well-read and articulate. I am so thankful that after our days in Nepal, we got to spend time together in California as well as in Canada when she visited us on a number of occasions. Those priceless memories will be cherished forever. May Aunty rest in peace and may God's blessings be with all of you at this difficult time. Lots of love, hugs and prayers, Lee Fong
