I known Maria for about 5 years we used to go on Tuesdays nights to the school of the word of God And prayer even on times she felt very tired she still went, she said that listening to the preaching of the Gospel at the Verbum Dei missionaries helped her rest and feel peace in her hart.In this 5 years we became very good friends and sisters in Christ. She used to share with me her troubles and happy moments. She shared how much she love her family her daughters, sons and grandkids. She also shared how much she enjoyed having her grandkids spend some weekends with her. She cook breakfast for all her grand kids of Victor her son and Mari her daughter.Maria visited her sisters in L A every opportunity she had. She love having all the family reunited to celebrate all important occasions.Maria was a very positive person had a great faith and she was always there for her family, her mom, sisters and brother also friends. I'm sure she is now very happy resting in peace in the presence of God.My prayers for Maria and family so they find peace and acceptance in their hart, knowing that the spirit of Maria will always be with them and she will live in their harts for ever.My most sincere condolences to all her family.Soledad Alvarez Garza

Jennifer Santizo lit a candle in honor of Maria.

Maria, fue un gusto en conocerla. El poco tiempo que yo la conocí fue llena de alegría, aventurera, trabajadora y una madre muy ejemplar. Gracias por abrir la puerta de su casa y invitarme a comer. Que Dios la tenga en su santa gloria y que descanse en paz con nuestro papa Dios. Mis mas sentido pésame ala familia y que Dios les de la resignación.
