Mel William Doyle

MAY 5, 1994 - SEP 19, 2021

Mel William Doyle passed away suddenly on September 19th, 2021. He was only 27. Mel was born in Tacoma, Washington on May 5, 1994, son of Marlon and Yolanda Doyle. He is survived by his four sisters, Marlis, Mickaela, Mickenly, and Montanna. Mel attended Graham Kapowsin High School where he was loved by many. Mel had a passion for sports and participated in football, wrestling, and weightlifting.

The simplest pleasures brought joy to Mel. Growing up, he enjoyed spending time barbecuing with his father during the summer, playing pickup basketball, and building forts in the woods with his sisters. Mel's mother nicknamed him "Sonny" because of the brightness he brought into any room that he entered. Mel never lost his kindness or gentlemanly ways, and he gave all of himself to make others smile.

Mel never let life's hardships bring him down. His smile was permanent, his brilliance unwavering. The joy that his presence brought was warm and genuine. He lived life allowing experiences to come with no expectations. His light-hearted way of living ensured he was able to enjoy every moment he was gifted. Mel was an inspiration to his sisters. He chose to be content, which made him the easiest person to be around. His bright, positive spirit was highly contagious to anyone lucky enough to cross paths with him. His smile was as radiant as the shining sun. His unforgettable energy is something his family strives to maintain.

As he enters the next realm, we know he will guide us in this life. Gone but never ever forgotten.

There are not enough words to explain how much we miss you. Even your brother. He's still toting that Dusty dog around. I Don't care what anyone has to say you were loved by me. And you knew that. Until we see each other again ❤️

2017 was the last time I saw Mel, right after I had lost every friend I had. I was walking in downtown Tacoma and I heard the warmest and most enthusiastic voice as I heard, "Tifani?!!!" I turned and there was Mel, grinning the brightest smile, basketball under his arm, surrounded by a group of friends who were respectfully waiting for their friend to greet someone. "MEL!!!" I yelled as I closed the 6 feet between us and threw my arms around him. He tossed his basketball to a friend and hugged me back. That was the warmest and most genuine hug I had that year. I was on a job so I only had 5 minutes to stop and talk, but in those 5 minutes, I felt seen and loved unconditionally as if I actually mattered during a time when I felt loved by nobody. Mel was a beautiful soul. He knew how to love in a way that heals and existed in the moment as if nothing and nobody else existed except whoever he was with. The world is a darker place without his light in it.

Mel was a quiet and shy kid with a smile that warmed your heart. I remembered one time Mel was helping uncle Ron in the garden and they came across bees in the ground, boy those two flew out of there screaming like girls. Luke 15: 24.
