Kee Chong Yeung

NOV 12, 1943 - OCT 5, 2021

Kee Chong Yeung was a beloved husband, father and grandfather. He left this world on October 5, 2021.

Mr. Yeung was born on November 12, 1943 in Canton, China according to the registries. In reality, based on relatives, he was born in 1938 which makes him 83 years old at the time of passing.

Mr. Yeung lived in Hong Kong where he met his beloved wife Chiu Kuen Kong. They married in September 1961. This year, they celebrated their 60th anniversary.

In 1969, the family moved to Argentina and lived for about 30 years. Argentina, a beautiful country, was like a 2nd home to him. He was a businessman focusing on the restaurant industry. He enjoyed cooking for the business and family. He always made delicious Chinese meals for holidays with Chinese ingredients available at the time to keep the ancestry tradition. He also developed a passion for futbol and “asado” a traditional Argentinian barbecue.

In the last 26 years, Mr. Yeung lived in the United States with his beloved wife, surrounded by his son, daughter, son-in-law, and granddaughters and friends.

Mr. Yeung is being remembered as someone who was charismatic, kind hearted, intelligent, honest, very creative and resourceful who knew how to fix and solve problems.
