In Loving Memory Kam Hee Ip

Dec. 23, 1937 - Nov. 29, 2021

Mr. Kam Hee Ip, age 83 of Burlingame, CA, USA, passed away on November 29, 2021 at 18:03 at San Francisco General Hospital, CA, USA due to a tragic car accident just a block away from his home.

He is the third youngest of 6 children and was born on December 23, 1937 in Shanghai, China to parents Mr. Ip Chiu Goon & Mrs. Ip Li Yung. In 1940, he and his mother managed to escape to Hong Kong. In 1960 he graduated from The Hong Kong Arts Center as a professional HairDresser. He met his wife, Angela Tang, in 1962 and they got married in 1963. They immigrated to San Francisco, CA, USA with their first child, Wing Sze, in 1971. Kam & his wife owned a laundromat at 1150 Howard Ave. in Burlingame, CA and later a Chinese restaurant on Washington St. in San Francisco, CA. He was a small business owner until he retired in 1999 at the age of 62.

He was an aspiring chef and always wanted to share his love for food. He enjoyed tinkering with Chinese herbs and always encouraged everyone to eat healthily and to live a full life. During his retirement, he enjoyed gardening, taking a stroll past Washington Park to the Original Royal Donut Shop on Burlingame Ave, where he enjoyed his daily cup of coffee and a donut while reading his Chinese newspaper. On certain days of the week, he would go to San Mateo Central Park with his wife to socialize with friends, have a meal with them, or do TaiChi. He was a simple man and was admired by many and was popular for giving wise advice of all kinds. Anyone who came across him felt a sincere connection with him, felt at peace and had good laughs. He was a man of the Tao faith and was very affectionate to his family, relatives, and friends. He was a very humble man and very generous to others. His belief in I Kuan Tao only validated him to be even more virtuous. He always had an easy going approach to everything. He would smile and never

獻給摯愛的葉鑑禧先生 (Kam Hee Ip) (12/23/1937 - 11/29/2021)

葉鑑禧先生今年83歲，係美國伯林格姆市民。於2021年11月29日下午6點零3分在離住家不遠處因車禍，不幸在舊金山綜合醫院歸空。

Obituary

Mr. Kam Hee Ip

DEC 23, 1937 - NOV 29, 2021

葉先生於1937年12月23日生於中國上海。在父親葉超宮 (Ip Chiu Goon) 和母親 葉李容 (Ip Li Yung) 六個孩子中排行第四。於1940年他和母親因第二次世界大戰的緣故，排除萬難逃到香港居住。

葉先生於1960年畢業於香港藝術中心髮藝科。1962年他和未來的妻子鄧奕瑜相遇，1963年兩人結婚。1971年1月，他們夫妻帶著第一個孩子移民美國舊金山。

葉先生夫妻在伯林格姆市經營自動洗衣店，後來在舊金山經營一家中國餐廳。他是一位小企業老闆，一直到1999年62歲時退休為止。

葉先生是位有創意的大廚，他喜歡分享他對美食的喜好。對中國草藥特別有涉獵，也常常鼓勵別人飲食要健康和在有生之年不空過的概念。在他退休期間，他的興趣是園藝，同時，喜歡散步穿過華盛頓公園到伯林格姆街的皇家甜甜圈餅店一邊享用咖啡、甜甜圈，一邊覽讀中文報紙；或者到聯合城與親朋好友聚會，喝咖啡聊天。

每星期有幾天，他們夫妻會到聖馬刁中央公園和朋友們見面、午餐或是打太極拳。單純的他，深受朋友們的愛戴，大家喜歡請教他各種明智、有智慧的建言。每一位認識他的人都可以感受到他的誠懇、平和，而且笑口常開。

他深信一貫道，對家人、親戚和朋友熱忱、友愛。待人謙虛且慷慨。求道後的他，更是不懈於建德修道中。平日待人平易近人、對事不急不緩，總是面帶笑容，不記仇。對他而言，凡事「沒問題」、「不用擔心」或是「諒解、放下」。

Alexander Wong lit a candle in honor of Kam.

Dear Auntie Angela, Wing and family, Allis and family - we are saddened to hear about the loss of one of the nicest (if not the best) uncle that I have ever known. Please accept our condolences. I recall that 大姨丈 was always smiling and very kind and respectful to everyone around him. I never saw him get angry and I remember how supportive and optimistic he was in any situation, especially when my own father passed. I remember his words of encouragement and that he said that my father was in a better place now. Although I am devastated at the sudden loss of life and very angry at the irresponsible person who did this, I also imagine that my uncle would not hold a grudge and that he is now in a happier place watching over all of us from above. You have lived a fruitful life and raised a beautiful family. You have much to be proud of and I am very thankful to call you family. I look at your picture as you are smiling, and I can only think of smiling back. With love and support always, Alexander Wong and family

We are so sorry for your loss. We thank you for allowing us into your family.We were fortunate to meet and share some meals with your father when he visited you. Although we met briefly, he has left us with a lifetime impression of a kind and gentle man, and his smile.We could not believe the news when we heard it. We kept asking ourselves if we heard it correctly. We did not want to believe it's real. It still doesn't seem real now. Thus, we know how incredibly difficult it is for your families and hope and pray that time will ease your pain.We look at your front yard and can still picture the days that you and your father working around the flower beds. We are certain that he's living in the heart of those he touched. We hope that you can find strength in him through this difficult time.Respectfully yours,Don & Thao & family

Thank you all for attending the service and for providing us with love and prayers during this difficult time. My father was an easy-going man whom enjoyed walks in the park, gardening, appreciating life's beauties and reading. He was always reading - newspapers, books of all sorts, pamphlets, magazines - he had notes in all of them - vocabulary, phrases, opinions, questions - anything that he could use to educate himself with. After gathering extensive research on any topic, he would then share his knowledge with his family, friends and neighbors. In his heart, he was and always will be a TEACHER. He always felt that others benefited from shared knowledge - it made us all better just by knowing. You felt his love, compassion and generosity just by talking with him. He imparted knowledge and through that knowledge, he imparted himself. I believe that he would want us all to continue in this endeavor - affect others by imparting something of you - be it knowledge, skill of trade, tips and tricks, whatever suits your fancy. Again, thank you all for your love, prayers and acts of kindness. You will always be a part of this family. Sincerely, Allis (Ip) Soto and family
