Barbara Wilder Armstrong

OCT 31, 1923 - JAN 10, 2022

Barbara Wilder Armstrong (“Babs”) passed away peacefully in Redwood City on January 10, 2022 after complications from pneumonia. She was surrounded by her adoring daughters as she left this world to join her beloved husband, Paul.

Barbara was born on October 31, 1923 in San Francisco to John G. and Mabel F. Wilder. Her early childhood years were spent living and exploring the Fairmont Hotel where her father was the General Manager. She enjoyed a life indicative of the era in San Francisco. She graduated from Washington High School in 1941 where she made life-long friendships that continued well into her eighties.

Barbara married the love of her life, Paul Armstrong Jr., on December 1, 1946 at Saint Matthews Church in San Mateo. They bought an Eichler home in Redwood City in 1950, where they remained for the rest of their lives. Babs was Paul’s foundation, encouragement and trusted adviser contributing to his success in countless ways while also working as a medical assistant.

She was thoroughly devoted to her family and many cherished friends. She had a special way of making each one feel uniquely loved. She spent her life content to be the support behind her husband and children and considered that her greatest accomplishment. While always elegant and beautiful, Babs will be remembered for her deeply dimpled smile, quick wit, and love of entertaining, always with a glass of champagne in hand.

She is survived by her daughters Terry Tringali (Joe) and Robin Kurotori (Craig), four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

A private celebration of life for immediate family will be held in February.
