Kelly, Lindsay and Scott. I am heartbroken to hear that Sandy has passed. I also met her commuting on the Caltrain to SF. We became fast friends, having dinner and brunch with me, Jackie and Barb. I often met her at the Mall or the garden center on the weekend for coffee and shopping. She loved to share pictures of her grandchildren. She was definitely smitten by all of them. She was such a beautiful person and loved by all her knew her. Thinking of you and wishing you moments of peace and comfort as you remember her. Susan Brooks.

Kelly, Lindsay and Scott, I'm am so very for the loss of your mother. Sandy and I commuted to SF on the train and walked together in the mornings on our way to work. I will miss her very much. We kept in touch after she retired by texting and we had lunch together last summer. She loved her family and always talked about her beautiful grand babies sharing pictures. She lit up and beamed with so much happiness. Your mom will be sorely missed. May your beautiful memories of her, help ease your pain. Sending prayers and my deepest sympathies to all of you.
