Obituary

Charles Robert Clanton

JUN 22, 1939 - APR 16, 2022

He was a long-time employee of Randtron Systems in Menlo Park.

Charlie and Ada lived in Fremont after moving from Redwood City and lived in Waterford for a few years after retiring. They later moved to Louisiana to live with Ada's sister's family, where they could enjoy the open space and relax with family and friends.

Charlie was a great storyteller, and we heard about his childhood and what Redwood City was like when he was a child. He told stories of his family back home in Arkansas and of his time there.

He was a fan of John Wayne and old western movies and would watch them everyday if he could. He loved the history of the old wild west on the screen. We all grew up watching westerns because of him, and they are some of his family's favorites now.

To Ada's dismay, Charlie was a true Rams Football fan. (She was a true SF 49er fan). One of his teams last games was the 2022 Superbowl game, and his Rams won- there was a lively living room that day!

Charlie loved his life with his family and friends. Charlie will let his life speak for the kind of man he was, and the kind of man all men strive to be. His good-hearted nature will be missed by all who knew him.
