In Loving Memory, Tony Wisner, 34 years old

Tony Wisner, an easy spirit and loving soul, left us on 10/10/23, leaving a profound void in the hearts of loved ones. Born on August 21, 1989, Tony brightened our lives with his warm smile and passionate heart. He was a great listener, cherished meaningful conversations, and lit up the room with his laughter. A gifted athlete, Tony's free spirit thrived in the redwoods where he enjoyed camping, hiking, and exploring California. Throughout his 34 years, Tony cared deeply for others, pursuing volunteer work with a local non-profit assisting unhoused youth. Despite his own struggles, Tony never ceased to think of others and offer what he could. Even in his passing, Tony gave hope to those in need as an organ donor. Above all, Tony found true joy in his relationships with family and friends. He was a devoted son, a loving brother, and a loyal friend. He is survived by his mother Becky Albert, brother Jon (Maggie) Wisner, nieces Juniper and Wren, several aunties, uncles, and many cousins. The unwavering support and love he gave will forever be cherished by those whose lives he touched. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to the Marin County non-profits Buckelew Programs and Ambassadors of Hope and Opportunity in Tony's honor. A memorial will be held on November 2, 2023, at 1 pm. All are welcome.
