Xiao Ling Huang

FEB 13, 1949 - DEC 17, 2023

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Xiao Ling Huang, our beloved mother, who departed from this world on December 17, 2023. Born on February 13, 1949, she lived a life that radiated love, kindness, and strength.

Mom's life was a testament to selflessness, spending countless moments nurturing and caring for others. Her genuine kindness touched the lives of all who were fortunate enough to know her.

Mom found joy in simple pleasures, especially through her love for cooking, where she delighted in creating delicious meals, such as Turnip Cake, Babao Rice, and various kinds of soups for her loved ones. Her passion for playing mahjong brought laughter and connection to those around her, fostering precious memories in each game played.

Mom was a true angel among us. Now, Mom has been reunited with our father and other departed loved ones in a place where her caring heart and loving spirit will continue to shine brightly.

Though mom may no longer be with us in person, she will always live on in our memories, and may mom rest in eternal peace. Her legacy of love and kindness will be cherished and remembered always.

The family will hold private services at Skylawn Memorial Park in San Mateo, California.
