Paz Robles Torres

JAN 5, 2024

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Paz Robles Torres on January 05, 2024.

Mom

Paz Robles Torres passed away peacefully on January 5th, 2024 at home in Roseville, California. She was born on February 19, 1928 in Baras, Rizal, Philippines to Placido Llagas Robles and Marciana Velgado Robles.

She is survived by her loving children Fe Dinozo (Edwin), Helen Asido, Bernard Jr. (Nemie), Christian (Angelica), Rey (Denise) and Jane Caliyoy (Dennis), daughter-in-law Maxine, grandchildren Gillian, CJ, Jenifer, Bernadeth, Brenda, Lizabette, Brian, Kelsey, Jared, Joven and Arden, great grandchildren Angill, Olivia, Caleb, Brooklyn and Antwon. She is preceded in death by her beloved husband Bernardo Torres, son Bernie Torres, daughter Cynthia Torres and grandson Ian Andrew Torres.

Paz and her husband Bernardo immigrated to the US (San Francisco) in 1968 with a commitment to making sure their children had the opportunity to thrive. As an elementary school teacher in the Philippines, Paz valued education so it was obvious that she always encouraged her children to excel in school and graduate from college. Her family was always her priority especially her grandchildren.

Paz had a personality that would warm your heart. She brought that same caring nature to her later career as a nursing assistant at Central Gardens convalescent home in SF where she worked for over 20 years.

Her passions included cooking for her family and friends. When she was not cooking, you would find her tending to her beautiful garden where she grew an abundance of fruits and vegetables which she always shared. Another excellent skill she had was sewing and crocheting. Every grandchild that was born was given a blanket crocheted by her own hands. This was a testament of how much she cared and loved each of them.

Paz spent her last three years in Roseville in the care of her daughter Jane and Dennis Caliyo. Those she left behind will remember a Mother, Grandmother and a Friend. Our hearts will be aching for her but we know that she is at peace with her husband once again. Services have been held.

A Torres posted:

Thanks, Paz, for being SUCH a kind and wonderful person. For the years you were alive, you've told us how much your kids meant to you by talking to them for hours on end about your life and how many hardships you have dealt with in order for them to have a better life than you had. You've bestowed all your love and attention to a special select few of your grandchildren. You know, the ones that meant SO much to you, perhaps even more so than the children you bore. And when you were tired and not feeling well, instead of burdening us with your pain, you would encourage others to take on your responsibilities as a caring grandparent and parent. You made it known that in order for us to show us how much we loved you, we had to bend over backwards to express that to you. Thank you, Paz, for teaching us how to be empathetic and caring individuals. Because without your presence in our lives, we may not be who we are today.
