The Ferguson and Toliver Families, please accept our deepest sympathy for your loss of Family Matriarch, Frances. Growing up in Jefferson, Texas we remember her well. Your families are in our thoughts and prayers. May you all find comfort in knowing that Jesus died on the cross, and was resurrected, so that those of us that believe in him will have eternal life after our earthly death... God assures us when we die, we merely step over to a new life that is eternal and full of joy. Based on our remembrance of her being a Godly person, we are sure she is enjoying eternal happiness in Heaven. Rest in peace cousin... George & Lugene Garrett

What an honor to know Mama Fran for most of my life. She was always willing to drop what she was doing to go to lunch or to a concert or just for a drive. So many wonderful memories. I loved coming home and finding a message on my machine, just to say hello, and do you need anything. What a honor and privilege to know her. Rest in God's peace and comfort, Mama Fran, I love you!

I have known Mother Fran since I was a little girl. She watched me get married, become a Mother, a Grandmother and was a friend to my Mama; and a support to her in her final days. Rest in Heaven Beautiful Lady. You've left a Beautiful Legacy for so many that knew you. Love, Comfort and God's Peace to Gayle and the entire Family. Cinda Sullivan
