Shelley H.L. Lin

SEP 26, 1929 - FEB 23, 2024

Shelley Lin passed away February 23, 2024 at the age of 94 as a result of an ongoing illness. His career was a dedicated international banker who had worked in several countries. He had been stationed in Chicago, Illinois, Toronto, Canada, Amsterdam, of the Netherlands, and Taipei, Taiwan.

Shelley enjoyed home-cooked meals with his wife and also enjoyed the restaurant experience. He always had a good appetite for fresh organic food and enjoyed regularly going to the farmers market. His wife made incredible recipes from Fujian, China.

He loved Chinese opera and had a large collection of DVDs and VHSs. He would search for rare and unique recordings throughout the bay area. He also used to play an ancient Chinese instrument called Erhu and could perform as a female singer, as in Chinese operas. What he learned from these things, he could easily teach! Shelley liked to go to the bookstore and search for hidden book treasures because he enjoyed reading a lot. His favorite sport was tennis.

Shelley is survived by seven children; Wendell, Ginger, Bonnie, Wilson, Helen, Kris, and Jill. Shelley's youngest son Windsor died December 2013 and his wife Dina died May 2015.

My father was a real trouper. He and his wife left China to start their new life in Taiwan. No money, he was empty-handed and worked extremely hard to raise 8 children while the economy was poor back then. My father held an advanced education which many people looked up to him for his wisdom. I have always dreamed about following in his footsteps from his career inspiration. Though I am not as successful as he was, he taught me the value of honesty, integrity and dignity. Dad, your presence will be deeply missed, may your soul rest in eternal peace. I love you. - Helen
