Tony Chan

JUL 11, 1939 - MAY 11, 2024

Tony Chan, born on July 11th, 1939, in Canton, China, peacefully passed away on May 11th, 2024, in Danville, California, USA. He is survived by his devoted wife, two loving children, five grandchildren, and a community of friends and relatives who cherish him deeply.

Tony was a man of simple pleasures and unwavering dedication. Emigrating from China to the United States in the 1980s, he sought a better life for his family, embodying the immigrant spirit of resilience and hope. Despite losing his hearing in his twenties due to a welding accident, Tony faced adversity with remarkable courage and grace. His positive outlook on life and unwavering determination inspired all who knew him.

Tony may not have been a master artist, but he took genuine pleasure in drawing. Each pencil stroke was like a window into his thoughts, revealing his calm and gentle nature. It was his go-to activity for finding tranquility amidst life's ups and downs, a hobby he held close to his heart before his stroke.

Tony's love for life extended to his culinary preferences, particularly his fondness for beef chow fun, which never failed to delight him.

Tony Chan's memory will be cherished by those fortunate enough to have known him. May his legacy of resilience, simplicity, and love for family live on in the hearts of all touched by his presence.
